

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.

The Pacific Mail Co.'s steamer City of Rio de Janeiro, Captain R.R. Scarle, with the American flag, arrived in harbour early this morning. The annexed telegrams are taken from San Francisco exchanges:—

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 18th. The Sultan gave a banquet last night to Lord and Lady Dufferin. His Majesty treated his guests with great cordiality, and conferred a decoration upon Lady Dufferin. In the course of conversation with the Sultan, Lord Dufferin assured his Majesty of the sympathy and friendship of England for Turkey.

DUBLIN, October 18th. A suit for libel has been brought by Police Inspector French against United Ireland, for the statement that he had absconded with money of the Secret Service Fund. The newspaper promises startling exposures.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 18th. A despatch says it is believed that only 200 deaths were caused by the earthquake.

BERLIN, October 18th. Mr. Sargent, United States Minister, has returned to Berlin and resumed the discharge of his duties.

LONDON, October 18th. The Standard says there is reason to believe that the Cabinet will meet on November 10th, to discuss the withdrawal of the British troops from Egypt.

There was an explosion in the Wharfedale Colliery, Yorkshire, yesterday. Twenty-three men were in the pit at the time. It is believed all perished. Three bodies have been recovered. When the explosion occurred five men rushed to the bottom of the shaft, and were rescued, though injured. The men remaining in the pit, numbering twenty, were lost. Searching force is organized, but the falling of the roof of the pit retards work. The explosion is attributed to a blast shot.

PARIS, October 19th. A battle is reported in Madagascar between the Hovas and the Sakalavas. Admiral Galiber was preparing to resume the offensive on the coast, where the Hovas had recaptured several places. The English naval authorities are described as very hostile to the French.

ATHENS, October 19th. The Government sent two ships to the Grecian Archipelago with supplies for the sufferers by the earthquake. One thousand two hundred and ten bodies were recovered near Chios, which had been entombed. The earth near Atalanta literally swallowed up houses and people.

LONDON, October 19th. A Constantinople despatch says: The Sultan has ordered the Governor of Smyrna to start for the scene of the earthquake with tents and other necessities.

WARSAW, October 19th. Whittier's proclamations appear almost daily. Numbers of persons suspected of being the authors, including several students, have been arrested.

VIENNA, October 19th. Two bands of mounted Gypsies, encamped near Weissenburg, became involved in a fight in which both women and children joined. Four of the participants were killed and many wounded.

MADRID, October 19th. The circular of the Minister of War to the Captains-General of the army dwells upon the necessity of extensive reform, and asks the army to rally round the King.

HALIFAX, N. S., October 19th. Since the arrest of Holmes and Bracken, suspected of connection with an infernal dynamite conspiracy, the six British war ships in port are more carefully guarded from any secret operations that might be directed against them. At night, particularly, extra precautions are taken, boats with strong forces of men being placed around and about the ships. Vice-Admiral Commerell to-day made an inspection of the suspicious articles found on the prisoners, and stated that they were exactly suited for intentions such as the men are suspected of.

BERLIN, October 19th. A gale of wind to-day did considerable damage in West and North Germany. Numerous wrecks are reported.

LONDON, October 20th. Three shocks of earthquake in quick succession, were felt at Gibraltar shortly after midnight, and another one at this morning. The direction was north to south.

DUBLIN, October 20th. Parnell has accepted an invitation from the promoters of the Parnell Testimonial Fund to attend a banquet given in his honor, in the Rotunda on the 10th of December.

A number of Irish National League meetings, announced to be held in County Cork to-morrow, have been prohibited by the authorities.

LONDON, October 20th. The Irish National League have passed a resolution expressing surprise and pleasure at the tenor of the speech of Chief Justice Colclough at his reception by the New York Bar Association. The resolution expresses the hope that the principles enunciated in that address will be applied by the British Government to Ireland, and also that the American tour of Colclough will serve to enlarge his views and enable him to advocate self-government for Ireland.

DUBLIN, October 20th. Earl Spencer, Lord Lieutenant, and Lady Spencer have left Dublin for England, where they propose to remain a considerable time. They will go first to Hawarden Castle, the residence of Gladstone, to pay a visit to the Prime Minister.

BERLIN, October 20th. Trichinosis is spreading in the vicinity of Ermleben, Prussian Saxony. The doctors fear 20 per cent. of the cases will be fatal.

LIMA, October 21st. A bulletin of the Diario Oficial announces the signing of a treaty of peace last night at Ancón between the representative of the Chilean government and General Iglesias. The bulletin adds: As Lima and Callao will, within two days, be occupied by the Peruvians, the Diario Oficial will no longer be published.

LONDON, Oct. 21st. General Pryor, O'Donnell's American counsel, in an interview to-day said he was satisfied that O'Donnell killed Carey in self-defence. It would be proved beyond question at the trial, that O'Donnell went to Africa with no design of killing Carey, and was unaware of the latter's presence on the steamer when he embarked. Carey, according to Pryor's theory, finding himself discovered, provoked a quarrel in order to anticipate the blow which he expected O'Donnell, as an Irishman, would strike. Manslaughter, in Pryor's opinion, was the utmost that O'Donnell could be found guilty of. Every effort is being made to bring witnesses from Cape Town to England. "I believe," Pryor said, "O'Donnell will have a fair trial. I find there is no prejudice against him. I do not expect to take a public part in the trial, but simply to help the other counsel by consultation. I will have to remain in London until the trial is finished. I have seen O'Donnell, and he impresses me as a simple-minded, ingenious Irishman—anything but an assassin." The trial will take place in the middle of November, and last two or three days.

NEW YORK, October 21st. A Tribune London despatch says: "French affairs command much attention. The Tama-tava incident promises a speedy arrangement in spite of the clamour of the press. The French cabinet will apologise for the affront to the English. Ferry's position has greatly improved. The weak point of his foreign policy is the treaty with the King of Annam, which causes grave disquiet in Paris. Annam has become a French province, and its defence is wholly guaranteed by the republic. The suzerainty of China is abolished in Tonquin. Nothing prevents an attack on Sontay. The French hope China will recognise the facts and come to terms, but there are no signs of surrender, and on the other hand China is preparing to blockade Canton. Harmand, the civil commissioner, estimates that it will cost France 8,000,000 francs to conquer the delta."

NEW YORK, October 21st. The Tribune's London cable of the 20th says: The contemplated withdrawal from Egypt is threatening financial crisis, and a panic is not impossible later on. The fresh outbreak of cholera is not regarded as serious, but it will hasten rather than prevent the return of troops. The surrender of Cetewayo is another embarrassment to Gladstone. As has already been said, he should not have been arrested, and the government should have adhered to the policy of non-intervention. This from the Liberals foretells a warm discussion of the collapse in Zululand, which must injure the Ministry.

LONDON, October 21st. Lord Rossmore, as grand master of the Orangemen, has written to a newspaper, calling attention to the serious state of affairs in Ulster. He says henceforth the self-restraint of the Orangemen cannot be reckoned upon; that only the utmost efforts of himself and the other leaders prevented the Orangemen from storming the hill at Rosslea during the recent Parnellite meeting. If the government, he adds, allows such disloyal meetings to continue in Ulster, there will be bloodshed and perhaps civil war.

A National League demonstration, followed by a banquet, was held at Wexford on Sunday. Michael Davitt, Healy, Sullivan, Leamy and Small, members of Parliament, were present. Davitt denounced landlism, and regretted to observe that the National League did not present such a solid front as it possessed three years ago. He asked the manhood of the country to push forward the organisation until victory should crown, or defeat overcome, its efforts.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 21st. Later details confirm the statement that the first accounts of the earthquake in Anatolia were greatly exaggerated. At Vouria, near Smyrna, where 200 huts were wrecked, only two persons were killed and seven injured. One thousand inhabitants were quartered in long tents outside the ruins of the village. Ten hamlets near Chios suffered more or less. Altogether 57 were killed and 150 injured in that district.

NEW YORK, October 21st. A despatch from London says:—The Times contains a column interview with James Gordon Bennett concerning the new Atlantic cable project. It makes Bennett state that he has joined Mackay to lay two cables, one from Brest, connected with Paris by special wire, and the other from England. The capital will be £5,000,000, and the contract stipulates that the cable shall be opened by July.

A London despatch says: The position of Ireland is causing apprehension. The Parnellite invasion of Ulster will bring certain trouble. The Orangemen threaten a counter-demonstration every occasion, and the only way out of the difficulty is to proclaim the meetings wholesale. Naturally, Lord Spencer hesitates to do this, but if a collision happens it will amount to a national disaster.

BERLIN, October 21st. Two hundred and sixty-six persons are suffering from trichinosis at Ermleben to-day. Only one out of 154 houses are free from the disease. This morning, up to ten o'clock, twenty-three persons died. There have been several cases at Aften.

DUBLIN, Oct. 21st. Daniel Lucy, a balliff, was to-day found dangerously wounded on Musham Mountain, in a wild district, near Macroom, County Cork. It is supposed to be another agrarian outrage.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 22nd. The first number of the socialist paper, Will of the People, which is printed abroad, has reached this city. It contains a letter from the nihilist prisoner Netschajeff to the Czar. Netschajeff was condemned ten years ago, and was supposed to be dead. The writer complains of the inhumanity of the prison officials, and of the terrible treatment of himself and his fellow prisoners. He says he has recently been deprived of the little light hitherto allowed him. The journal adds that the letter was originally written in blood, on printed paper, and a great portion therefore is illegible. The letter has created great excitement among the Nihilists at St. Petersburg.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 22nd. A fresh shock of earthquake was felt to-day at Tchesme, causing great damage. Admiral Hay telegraphed to Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, "Help urgently needed."

A despatch from Malta says a slight shock of earthquake was felt there at two yesterday morning. A shock of earthquake was also felt at Trieste at half-past three yesterday morning.

MADRID, October 23rd. The Cabinet has resolved to summon the Cortes to meet on December 1st. A royal decree has been issued providing that henceforth general officers shall hold staff appointments for only three years. The enforcement of the decree will involve the resignation of a captain-general, seven lieutenant-generals, five field marshals, and forty brigadiers. This is the first step in the new scheme for the reform of the army.

NEW YORK, October 23rd. Advice from Port-au-Prince says: Order has been completely restored here. 1,500 lives were lost, and damage to the extent of $40,000,000 was done during the recent massacre. The Haitian war steamer Desallines has arrived under the American flag. In the attack on Miranogone the government troops were repulsed with severe loss, and General Piquet was mortally wounded.

STASBURG, October 23rd. A great sensation has been caused here by two mysterious murders. One victim was an apothecary's assistant, whose body was found fearfully wounded. The other was a military sentinel found on the ground near his post with his head crushed in. The motive for the commission of the murders is unknown. No arrests have been made.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 23rd. Three shocks of earthquake were felt to-day at Tchesme and on the island of Chios. Great alarm was created, but no damage was done. Another severe shock was felt at Smyrna at 9 p.m. The telegraph office was damaged, but nobody was killed.

HAVRE, Oct. 23rd. The General Transatlantic company's steamer Normandie from New York, collided with and sunk a schooner The Normandie sustained much damage.

LIMA, Oct. 22nd. At eight this morning General Lynch left for Bagua, where he has established his general quarters. At ten o'clock General Iglesias entered Lima as President Regent.

OUTRAGE BY JAPANESE UPON CHINESE, AT FUSAN, COREA.

We are informed that the Japanese in Fusan have lately attempted a most unjustifiable outrage upon some Chinese residents in that part of Corea. The facts of the case are as follows:—In the early part of this month, the Chinese firm of Tick Hing & Co., a branch of the well-known establishment of Kung Hing & Co., of Kobe, set up in No. 5, Hom-machi (six months' lease having been obtained previously from the Japanese householder), the main street of Fusan, a general store; this they did after calling on Mr. S. Miyamoto, the Acting Consul-General for Japan, and informing him of their intention to establish themselves in this part of Corea. It seems that Mr. Miyamoto received them in a friendly manner, and in no way objected to their presence in Fusan.

Messrs. Kung Hing & Co. altered the house, which had been rented for them on a lease of six months, to suit their trade, and opened for the first time on the 3rd instant. A day or two subsequent to this, a Japanese presented himself at the house and told Messrs. Tick Hing & Co., to call at the Consulate, as Mr. Miyamoto desired to interview them, accordingly one of the Chinese called and was ordered by the Consul to shut up his house at once, and to leave the port by first steamer; in reply, the representative of Messrs. Tick Hing & Co., said he could not do so; and that he would appeal to the Korean authorities at once. During the course of that day several Japanese store keepers and merchants visited Mr. Tick Hing & Co.'s premises, threatened the occupants, and ordered them to shut up business in Fusan once; and at 8 p.m. several of them entered the house, and threatened not only to smash up the goods of the Chinese, but also to elect them to the premises. With much difficulty they were persuaded to desist, which, however, was on the condition that they would suffer on some future occasion were they to open the store on the morrow. The Chinese opened as usual the next day, but have since been so troubled by the Japanese, and so annoyed by the receipt of indirect messages from the Acting-consul for Japan, that they sent a letter to Mr. Miyamoto, stating that they looked to him for protection from his subjects, as there is no Chinese Consul or other foreign representative in the port; the result of this letter has been that the Consul has ignored its contents and personally called and ordered the Chinese to shut their doors; which the latter firmly but politely declined to do.

It seems that the Japanese Consul at Fusan objects to the presence of Chinese merchants, on the grounds that in the settlement of Fusan it is agreed between Japan and Corea that only Japanese shall be allowed to carry on trade there. But Mr. Miyamoto forgets that even if such agreement (a thing which we very much doubt) existed, to have force as regards other nations, it has to be published; and he also appears to have overlooked the point that the particulars of such an agreement should have been made clear to the Chinese as soon as they called at the Consulate. The Consul knew the men were setting up in Fusan, he allowed them to do so by his silence, and then had the audacity to order them off just as soon as a few jealous peddlers complained to him about opposition.

If the Consul forcibly closes Messrs. Tick Hing & Co.'s doors, then it may be taken for granted that a serious difficulty will arise between Japan and China over the question. The Chinese have already appealed to the highest Chinese officials in Seoul, and it is to be hoped that without further delay the Chinese fleet will visit not only Nagasaki but also Fusan. The necessity for the presence of the Chinese fleet in these waters has been brought home to us in a most unmistakable manner, a fact which is calculated to cause us to feel deep sympathy for our Chinese friends in the port of Fusan, Corea, which is only some 150 miles to the N.W. of this place.

To civilized nations it must seem almost impossible for a people like the Japanese, who are noted for the hospitality they so liberally show towards visitors to their native land, to treat two of the subjects of China in the above stated disgraceful manner.

Seeing the liberal way in which Japanese are treated in all parts of the world, and how freely they are received into the foreign settlements of China, it makes the action of the Japanese at Fusan, headed by the Acting Consul-General, all the more astonishing; and we are inclined to think that they will find themselves greatly mistaken ere long. The Japanese have held a rich monopoly in Corea for 7 years past, but cannot do so any longer. The day has now passed when only Japanese can set foot on shore in the Land of Morning Calm, and when Japanese can rob, undisturbed, valuable timber, per force majeure, from the islands on the East coast of Corea. CHINKIANG.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Of the several different versions given in the local press of Shanghai respecting the subsidence of land which occurred a few days ago at Chinkiang that given by your occasional correspondents in your issues of the 16th and 17th inst. is the most correct. The disaster may be solely attributable to the heavy freshets with which this port has been visited of late, combined with the havoc made by the small water-crab. The whole of the left bank is perfectly undermined, and at any time a serious landslip may take place, and if such does occur the loss of life will be great, for it is at present very thickly populated.

It is to be hoped that the Shanghai refugees who occasionally pass through the settlement will be enabled to procure some means of existence during the coming winter, and that local gentry will not withhold a liberal hand to these most unfortunate people, to give them the means of returning to their homes in the spring of the ensuing year.

Our market is now plentifully supplied with all kinds of game, and should any of the Shanghai sporting community deem Chinkiang and its surrounding country worth a visit during the shooting season, they can depend upon making a good bag, particularly with wild fowl, to say nothing of the larger kind of game, such as wild boar, deer, foxes, &c.—Mercury.

HANKOW.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

November 10, 1883. A body of troops, numbering 2,800, are expected here in a few days from the Tungting Lake district. They will embark on board three Chinese men-of-war and three chartered lorches, the latter being towed to Shanghai. The troops will be transhipped at Shanghai or Woosung and proceed to Canton.

The C.M.S.N. Co.'s steamer Kiang-tung arrived here yesterday from Ichang, having made the fastest round trip on record, namely five days seventeen hours—from Hankow to Ichang and back. Great credit is due to her able commander for the safe navigation of his vessel while passing through such shallow water, there being only 8 feet at Sunday Island and Salamis bar.

I hear from Ichang that a monument has lately been erected there to the memory of a young lady—the only foreigner buried at that port. She was much respected, and died about a year ago. It is said that the monument has been erected by the captain and officers of the Kiang-tung and a few friends.

It is reported that the Kiang-tung will only make two or three more trips to Ichang this season. A new agency is to be started at Ichang, and the Falchey will become the pioneer of a new line. "She" expects to leave this port for Ichang about the 1st of December.

The water mark at Hankow, per Ewo register, is 35ft.—Courier.

UNDER the heading "Exhibits to the Cork Exhibition, Ireland," "THE CORK
CONSTITUTION, No. 13,025, dated Saturday, July 14th 1883, says:—

MESSRS. TURNBULL JUNR. & SOMERVILLE,

"Valletta, Malta, exhibit in a tastefully arranged case, samples of their famous 'Kalsar-
L-Hind' Cigarettes, and inasmuch as a revolution in the habit of smoking is now setting in, this exhibit should prove attractive to all lovers of the 'fragrant weed.' Instead of strong Tobacco, often used in too strong pipes and full flavoured Cigars, the mild Cigarette is rapidly coming into vogue. Those now on view in the Exhibition are highly spoken of by the Press, vendors, and smokers."
